SCHOOL OF DESIGN,
BOARD OF MANUFACTURES,
ROYAL INSTITUTION, EDINBURGH.

THE Course of Instruction provided by the Board, has for its object the Education of Artists, Artizans, and others connected with Manufactures; of Teachers and Pupil Teachers (male and female), and also of Ladies and Gentlemen who may feel anxious to avail themselves of the opportunities for study, afforded by the various Collections in the Galleries of the Royal Institution. All instruction is under the Superintendence of Directors or Masters.

The Course consists of Free-hand, Architectural, and Mechanical Drawing; Practical Geometry, the Projection of Shadows, and Perspective; the management and use of Chalk in Drawing; Painting in Oil, Tempera, Water Colours, and Fresco; Modelling in Clay and Wax, Carving in Wood, Moulding, and Casting, according to the capacity of pupils; and the instruction comprehends every style, from the simplest Ornament, Still Life, and Flowers, to the study of the Human Figure. Lectures are given by Professor Miller every Session on Pictorial Anatomy; and other Lectures are introduced as occasion may offer.

Hitherto this instruction has been gratuitous; but Payment of Fees will be required in future, under the following Regulations:—

The Session will commence on the 1st of October and end on the 30th of June.

The Session will be divided into three Terms, of 3 months each, viz.—

First Term,	-	-	-	-	1st October to 31st December.
Second Term,	-	-	-	-	1st January to 31st March.
Third Term,	-	-	-	-	1st April to 30th June.

Fees will be charged from all persons attending the School, at the following rates:—
